Special meetings of the Board may be called at the request of the President or of any two members of the Board, upon notice given at least twenty-four hours before the time appointed therefor. Any member of the Board absent from three consecutive regular meetings without permission of the Board, or without sufficient excuse, may, by a vote of the Board, be held to have resigned his office.

The Board of Directors shall report at each annual meeting upon the condition of the Club.

ARTICLE VII.

The annual meeting of the Club shall be held on the first Saturday of March in each year, at 8.00 p. m. At any meeting of the Club twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of the President and Vice-Presidents, the presiding officer

ARTICLE VIII.

Fifteen members may call a special meeting of the Club, with or without the consent of the officers, by posting a written call, over their own signatures, upon the bulletin board in the Club-house; notice of such meeting to be sent to each member of the Club at least five days before the same is to occur, and the subject or subjects of such meeting to be stated in the notices.

ARTICLE IX.

The number of resident members of this Club is limited to one hundred and fifty. Only such persons as are more than twenty-one years of age, and in politics belong to the Republican party, shall be eligible for membership. Such persons that reside outside of LaFayette or West LaFayette may, if otherwise eligible, be elected non-resident members of the Club. They shall enjoy all the privileges of membership except the right to hold office or to vote, but shall acquire no interest in the property of the Club. The names of all persons proposed for membership, with the names of the members proposing them, shall be posted on the bulletin board for at least fourteen days, and the amount of the initiation fee must be paid to the Treasurer of the Club before being voted upon by the Board of Directors. They shall consider and treat as confidential all communications in reference to the persons proposed, make careful examination as to their qualifications, and shall pass upon the name of each candidate separately. One negative vote shall be a rejection of a candidate. No person so rejected shall be eligible for six months thereafter. The proceedings of the Board shall be secret and confidential. A member-elect must pay a proportion of the quarterly dues corresponding to the unexpired portion of the current quarter year, no notice being taken of the fraction of a month.

ARTICLE X.

For resident members the initiation fee shall be twenty-five dollars; the annual dues eighteen dollars. For non-resident members the initiation fee and annual dues shall be one-half of the amount paid by resident members. The annual dues shall be payable in advance on the first days of January, April, July and October in each year.

In case a non-resident member shall become a resident of LaFayette or West LaFayette, he shall be required to pay an additional initiation fee of the same amount that he paid at the time of his admission to the Club.

Where a resident member shall become a non-resident, he shall be entitled, on written notice to the Secretary, to be classed as a non-resident member, and his reduction in dues shall date from time of said notice. A resident member, who has changed to a non-resident member, and then again becomes a resident member, shall be exempt from paying any additional initiation fee. The Board of Directors shall be authorized to decide, in case of doubt, in regard to the residence of members.

When the dues, assessments, or other indebtedness of any member shall remain unpaid for two months after a written notice to pay the same shall have been sent to him, his membership shall be declared forfeited by the Board of Directors, and he shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Club. A member thus forfeiting his membership, may be reinstated within three months after such forfeiture, by a two-thirds vote of the Board, upon the payment of all arrears. A member resigning shall be held liable for the full payment of dues for the current quarter year. No one who shall forfeit his membership shall be admitted into the Club House, unless re-instated or re-elected. If any one, having forfeited his membership, shall be re-elected a member, he shall pay the amount of his indebtedness due at the time of forfeiture, in addition to the initiation fee and dues.

ARTICLE XI.

No member of the Club shall be expelled for misconduct, until he shall have been afforded an opportunity to be heard before the Board of Directors in his defense. A motion to reconsider the expulsion of a member, may be made at the same meeting when such expulsion is resolved upon, or at the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors, but at no other time. No one who shall have been expelled from the Club, shall ever be reelected a member or admitted into the Club House.

ARTICLE XII.

A member may invite to the Club House, once only, a resident of the city of LaFayette, who desires to become a member of the Club.

Otherwise male residents of the city of Lafayette, not members of the Club, shall not be admitted to the Club House, excepting on the occasion of a public reception. A member may invite a non-resident visitor to the privileges of the Club for one day, by recording his name upon the Visitor's Book, but can have no more than two guests at a time. The invitation may be extended two weeks upon the written assent of a member of the Board of Directors, and may be repeated, if the visitor has been absent from the city three months. The Board of Directors may revoke the invitation at any time. The names and residences of all visitors, and the names of the members introducing them, must be recorded, and such members will be held responsible for their guests.

ARTICLE XIII.

No debt beyond the ordinary running expenses, shall be created without a two-thirds vote of a meeting of the Club. A two-thirds vote of a meeting of the Club shall be necessary to levy an assessment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Upon all questions of the construction of the By-Laws, the decision of the Board of Directors shall control, until overruled by a two-thirds vote of a meeting of the Club.

Any By-Law may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of a meeting of the Club.

ARTICLE XV.

A register shall be kept in the Club House, in which any member may record his name and address. Notices mailed to the address of any member, as noted in the register, shall be considered properly sent. If a member fails to record his address in the register, notices shall be mailed to his last address known to the Secretary of the Club. Such notices shall be held to have been received two days after being so mailed.

ARTICLE XVI.

No game of hazard shall be played in the Club house. No person shall bet on any game, under penalty of expulsion, if a member of the Club, and ejection from the Club House and exclusion therefrom, if a visitor or guest.

ARTICLE XVII.

No alteration shall be made in the By-Laws, without a two-thirds vote of a meeting of the Club, and notice of any proposed alteration must be posted in the Club House, for at least ten days previous to the meeting at which such proposed alteration is to be considered.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Members-elect must sign the Constitution and By-Laws, before becoming members in regular standing.

A member may invite a non-resident visitor to the privileges of the Club for one day, by recording his name upon the Visitor's Book, but can have no more than two guests at a time. The invitation may be extended two weeks, upon the written assent of a member of the Board of Directors, and may be repeated, if the visitor has been absent from the city three months. The Board of Directors may revoke the invitation at any time.

The names and residences of all visitors, and the names of the members introducing them, must be recorded, and such members will be held responsible for their guests.
